The first edition of conflict and catastrophe was produced in 2002 and a second, successful edition, followed in 2009.
The decision to produce these works sprung from painful problems experienced by colleagues and authors themselves during many humanitarian and related deployments.

Conflict provides a whole section in this Christmas issue, which is appropriate not only because medicine is driven forward by war but also because the millennium has begun and ended with war and the 20th century has seen more deaths from war than ever before.
