The Psychological and Physiological Effects of Guilt

Maus and the Psychological Effects of the Holocaust The Maus books are award-winning comics written by Art Spiegelman. They are the non-fictional stories of Art and his father, Vladek. In the book, Art Spiegelman is a writer, planning to portray Vladek's life as a Jewish man during WWII Europe in comic book form. While Art gathers information for his story through visits to his father's house, much is learned about their relationship and individual personalities. Through this analysis
