The Christ of the Prophets: O. Palmer Robertson ...
The Christ of the Prophets provides an excellent overview of the prophets. I was especially helped by the scriptural requirements to be a prophet and the nature of their call.
The book is well written and well organized. It is faithful to the scriptures. This is the first book by O. Palmer Robertson that I have read. I intend to investigate others.

Robertson captures the passion and purpose of the prophetic writings. After examining the origins of prophetism, the prophets' call, and their proclamation and application of law and covenant, he devotes special attention to the biblical-theological significance of the exile and to restoration in Christ.
