International Conference on Ultrafast Phenomena 2016

Welcome to Santa Fe and to the International Conference on Ultrafast Phenomena! This year's event the 20th biannual international conference continues the tradition of bringing together a multidisciplinary group of researchers and students sharing a common interest in science and Ultrafast Phenomena and Nanophotonics XXI - SPIE. Join us as we announce the Ultrafast Phenomena and Nanophotonics Best Student Paper Award. All contributed papers from conference 10916 given by a young scientist (PhD student or postdoc within the first two years after graduation) were eligible for the award (contributed papers only).
